the council of nicaea in 325 ad marked the beginning of a new era in christianity for the first time doctrines were organized into a single creed the nicene and post nicene fathers did most of their writing during and after this important event in church history unlike the previous era of christian writing the nicene and post nicene era is dominated by a few very important and prolific writers in volume iv of the 14 volume collected writings of the nicenes and post nicenes first published between 1886 and 1889 readers will find augustines writings defending the catholic church against the manichaeans and the donatists manichaeism was a religion developed in persia by the prophet mani according to this religion creation has two parts darkness and light light is god and has ten attributes opposing this and coeternal with it is darkness and its five attributes saint augustine was originally a manichaean so his defense of christianity against this religion comes from a deep understanding of its nature donatists were a group of believers who refused to forgive those who had renounced their faith during a time of persecution which caused a schism in christianity in opposing these men augustine attempted to mend the rift those with an interest in ancient religions will find augustines writings on manichaeism one of the most important historical records of that religions practices there are many devotional books available containing brief daily inspirations that benefit all who read them this book is different in two respects the first is obvious it contains two readings per day 732 in all the second more important difference is that the author wanted to do more than offer inspiration this would make this book no different than so many others the messages in the book are study sketches in that the content is not only inspirational but also educational challenging and encouraging most of these writings were based on author michael j akers s teaching of adult bible studies for more than thirty years and learning what really brought adults to want to deepen their knowledge and application of the word of god
