consequences of torture and related violence and trauma report on the status of scientific knowledge and include research recommendations with implications for treatment services and policy development this book dedicated to those who experience the horrors of torture and those who work to end it is based on that report to me hard times are like hide and seek where is the solution where is the hope we can never give up looking for these things because they are just waiting to be found gidon lev on may 8 1945 when he was just ten years old gidon lev was liberated from a nazi concentration camp after four nightmarish years twenty six family members including gidon s beloved father and grandparents were murdered in the holocaust only gidon and his mother survived from the depths of despair a little boy who had lost so much was determined to build a life filled with adventure and love and that is exactly what he did today a spritely and cheerful octogenarian and father of six gidon speaks to celebrities and diplomats all over the world and has taken social media by storm all with his signature candor charm and wisdom just what makes this holocaust survivor rascal and dogged optimist tick sharing remarkable stories from his extraordinary life lev reveals his secrets of happiness and fulfillment from reconciling with the sometimes painful past to embracing this singular gift called life gidon has never taken a day of his life for granted and neither should we you don t get the life you want gidon says you get the life that you get let s make things better is the story of an indomitable spirit whose cheerful determination to never give up is just what we need during these uncertain times now more than ever gidon lev has important lessons for us all about life and how to live it well having the courage to stand up to hate living for the moment believing in ourselves nurturing loving and caring relationships and always always believing that a better world is something worth fighting for questioning over 1 000 survivors brener seeks to establish the impact of the holocaust on the religious belief of those who survived includes bibliographical references and index in an iconoclastic and controversial new study norman g finkelstein moves from an interrogation of the place the holocaust has come to occupy in american culture to a disturbing examination of recent holocaust compensation agreements how do holocaust survivors find words and voice for their memories of terror and loss this landmark book presents striking new insights into the process of recounting the holocaust while other studies have been based typically on single interviews with survivors this work summarizes twenty years of the author s interviews and reinterviews with the same core group in this book therefore survivors recounting is approached not as one time testimony but as an ongoing deepening conversation listening to survivors so intensively we hear much that we have not heard before we learn for example how survivors perceive us their listeners and the impact of listeners on what survivors do in fact retell we meet the survivors themselves as distinct individuals each with his or her specific style and voice as we directly follow their efforts to recount we see how holocaust memories challenge their words even now burdening survivors speech distorting it and sometimes fully consuming it it is not a story insisted one survivor about his memories it has to be made a story on listening to holocaust survivors shows us both the ways survivors can make stories for the not story they remember and just as important the ways they are not able to do so
