the career of Spain's celebrated author Carmen Martín Gaité spanned the Spanish Civil War, Franco's dictatorship, and the nation's transition to democracy. She wrote fiction, poetry, drama, screenplays for television and film, and books of literary and cultural analysis. The only person to win Spain's national prize for literature, the Premio Nacional de las Letras, twice, Martín Gaité explored and blended a range of genres from social realism to the fantastic as she took up issues of gender, class, economics, and aesthetics in a time of political upheaval. Part 1 of this volume provides resources for instructors and a literary historical chronology. The essays in Part 2, "Approaches," consider Martín Gaité's best-known novel, The Back Room (El cuarto de atrás), and other works from various perspectives: narratological, feminist, sociocultural, stylistic. In an appendix, the volume editor, who was a friend of the author, provides a new translation of Martín Gaité's only autobiographical sketch alongside the original Spanish.

With contributions from scholars and K-12 teachers who have used young adult literature to engage with their students, chapters confront this issue and focus on themes such as multilingualism, culturally responsive teaching, disability, racism, linguisticism, and gender.
