John Muir's extraordinary vision of America comes to life in these fascinating selections from his personal journals as a conservationist. John Muir traveled through most of the American wilderness alone and on foot without a gun or a sleeping bag in 1903 while on a three-day camping trip with President Theodore Roosevelt. He convinced the President of the importance of a national conservation program and he is widely recognized for saving the Grand Canyon and Arizona's Petrified Forest. Muir's writing based on journals he kept throughout his life gives a view of the American landscape before it was largely settled by farms and towns in the wilderness world of John Muir. Edwin Way Teale has selected the best of Muir's writing from all of his major works including My First Summer in the Sierra and Travels in Alaska to provide a singular collection that provides to be magnificent, thrilling, exciting, breathtaking, and awe-inspiring.
