and future directions of implant prosthodontics new to this edition are full color photographs and coverage of immediately loaded complete dental prostheses from lead editor and respected educator George Zarb. Prosthodontic treatment for edentulous patients provides an atlas of clinical procedures and emphasizes the importance of evidence based treatment. Short easy to read chapters cover the essentials of care for both short and long term patients stressing the importance of evidence based treatment. Expanded coverage of implant prosthodontics addresses the clinical protocols for implant retained and implant supported prosthodontic management. Specific chapters address the three surfaces of the complete denture: 1 an impression or intaglio surface, 2 a polished surface and 3 an occlusal surface. The integration of which is crucial to creating a stable functional and esthetic result. Chapter on health and nutrition examines a number of systemic conditions: vesiculoerosive conditions, systemic lupus erythematosus, burning mouth syndrome, salivary dysfunction, Sjögren's syndrome, hyper hyposalivation, diabetes that affect the oral cavity and specifically influence the prognosis for wearing complete dentures or for accepting osseointegrated prostheses. Chapter on the time dependent changes which occur in the oral cavity focuses on both time related: direct ulcer, cheek biting, irritation, hyperplasia, denture stomatitis, flabby ridge and pendulous maxillary tuberosities, hyperkeratosis and oral cancer, residual ridge reduction and indirect atrophy of masticatory muscles, nutritional status and masticatory function, control of sequelae, changes in the oral environment and provides strategies to minimize the risk of such changes. Chapter on the techniques used to prolong the life of complete dentures focuses on the two techniques used to extend the life of dentures: relining and rebasing, also touching on denture duplication. Well respected editors and contributors are the leaders in their field lending credibility and experience to each topic.
