this book goes beyond baudrillard s writings on consumer objects the gulf war and america to identify the fundamental logic that underpins his writings it does this through a series of close readings of his main texts paying particular attention to the form and internal coherence of his arguments the book is written for all those who want a general introduction to baudrillard s work and will also appeal to those readers who are interested in social theory but who have not yet taken baudrillard seriously presents baudrillard s key concepts and examines his contribution to postmodernism feminism technology art war time and politics this book defines translationality by weaving a number of sub and interdisciplinary interests through the medical humanities medicine in literature the translational history of medical literature a medical neuroscience approach to literary translation and translational hermeneutics and a humanities phenomenological performative approach to translational medicine it consists of three long essays the first on the traditional medicine in literature side of the medical humanities with a close look at a recent novel built around the capgras delusion and other neurological misidentification disorders the second beginning with the traditional history of medicine side of the medical humanities but segueing into literary history translation history and translation theory the third on the social neuroscience of translational hermeneutics the conclusion links the discussion up with a humanistic performative phenomenological take on translational medicine in jean baudrillard and radical education theory turning right to go left the authors argue that baudrillard has been underappreciated in philosophical and theoretical work in education they introduce him here as an important figure in radical thought who has something to add to theoretical lines of inquiry in education the book does not offer an introduction to baudrillard rather his corpus is mined in order to describe how it functions as a counter to the code of education rational thought critical reason etc in effect they establish that baudrillard advocates for a counter path to thinking that can shake us out of our ready made thoughts and realize the radical potential for change the visual has long played a crucial role in forming experiences associations expectations and understandings of heritage images convey meaning within a range of practices including tourism identity construction the popularization of the past through a variety of media and the memorialization of events however despite the central role of the visual in these contexts it has been largely neglected in heritage literature this edited collection is the first to explore the production use and consumption of visual imagery as an integral part of heritage drawing on case studies from around the world it provides a multidisciplinary analysis of heritage representations combining complex understandings of the visual from a wide range of disciplines including heritage studies sociology and cultural studies perspectives in doing so the book provides a comprehensive overview of the theoretical and methodological tools necessary for understanding visual imagery within its cultural context scientific study from the year 2019 in the subject engineering power engineering grade 2 0 technical university of berlin course wind turbine measurement techniques language english abstract in this paper the differences between a performance analysis of a wind turbine by computational simulations and by experimental methods such as tests in the wind tunnel growika belonging to the tu berlin are analysed the qualitative and quantitative aspects of both the rotor of the turbine and its electric generator are analyzed under specific experimental methods whose resulting graphs are compared with simulation software such as qblade for rotor performance and open afpm for electric generator performance finally from this comparison an analysis is derived by which the accuracy of the information obtained by the used software is validated due to the recent climate crisis and new trends regarding the development of energy production wind energy has become one of the most used solutions in the field of renewable energies this technology offers efficiencies and performance even beyond energy production systems such as solar energy and even internal combustion engines based on biodiesel another convenience of wind energy is the fact that it has a wide potential for places even hard to reach by other technologies but just as it has a great number of advantages it also has disadvantages because it is a technology that is still under development and its mode of implementation depends on a great number of variables such as mechanical electrical and climate factors that must be taken into account when developing the different types of projects jean baudrillard is one of the outstanding representatives both of french poststructuralism and postmodernism because of radical criticism it was not possible for him to establish a logically coherent theoretical system the philosophical aspects of his work are specifically merged therefore into a critical asystematic fragmentarism which is the subject of this work from the critique of the political economy of the sign through critiques of rationalism reality progress truth history to the theory of simulation baudrillard s specific para concepts fatal strategy symbolic exchange seduction hyperreality pataphysics etc are constantly fragmentarily present in the development of his thought these concepts are baudrillard s attempt at disengagement from modern philosophy and his new unsystematic postmodern view of reality in general in the analysis of binary metaphysical oppositions reality simulation subject object knowledge seduction history end radical irradical nihilism metaphysics god pataphysics baudrillard is radically exclusive through the arbitrary preference of one over the other concept his ideas it is possible to conclude that these dualistic antagonisms are also paradoxically compatible in his system this compatibility is very close to the irrational mysticism of this thinker this book is a clear and lucid presentation of this unique brand of postmodernism to english speaking scholarship
